

In response to freeloading gallery-goers

Lisa Birko, who never ceases to impress me with her paintings of characters—humans and wildlife both—overlapping each other, crowding and adapting into constricted spaces. This is all so very apparent in Clones, Hybrids, and Techno-Beasts, her new show at the Bau-Xi gallery, 3045 Granville, opening Saturday.

The work of Lisa Birko in Clones, Hybrids, and Techno-Beasts, at Bau-Xi.